Reinventing the Lunch and Learn

Mountain Crane recently hosted an interactive lunch and learn at the yard. Customers were invited to test drive the Goldhofer, take a ride in a manbasket, Jack 'n Slide a tank, and even try their hand at operating a crane.

Despite the heat, everyone enjoyed the day!

This was the first time we've hosted an activity like this, but it won't be the last! We will be hosting another event in September, so be sure to keep an eye out.

1. Submit the most recent transcript available (High School transcripts are acceptable)
  2. Fill out the Application Form
  3. Write an Essay (1 page = 400 words maximum) about why you value safety and what it means to you and your family.
- *Submit all requirements as .pdfs or .docs to info@mountaincrane.com

Anyone currently pursuing or planning to pursue higher education in the 2014-2015 school year is eligible to apply.

Deadline for Entries: Friday, July 24, 2015

The winners will be announced in Mountain Crane's August Newsletter. Excerpts of winning or honorable mention entries will be featured in future newsletters.

MHT MINUTE

Safety & Mountain Heavy Transport

Mountain Heavy Transport is committed to safety. Crane work is typically done in controlled environments, but heavy haul transportation is done on our public roadways. We are constantly surrounded by the general public, which makes it even more critical to operate with caution and plan each haul with safety in mind. For a safe and efficient move of anything over-dimensional or over-weight, please give us a call at: 801-556-3828.
