Zero is Attainable

Mountain Crane is thrilled to have recently been recognized for the 2013 “Zero is Attainable” award. This award was given to Mountain Crane in recognition of completing 2013 at the Salt Lake Refinery without an OSHA recordable or days away from work injury.

Mountain Crane is committed to safety and service on every project, and is honored to receive such a wonderful award.

Big-D Children's Fair

Big-D Construction recently hosted a children's safety fair where family and friends of Big-D employees and the general public were able to come enjoy outdoor activities, food, and fun, as well as learn about safety in the construction business.

Mountain Crane supplied our infamous Iron Man Crane with 197 feet of boom and 88000 lbs of counterweight. Families were able to take a manbasket ride up 190 feet, taking in the breathtaking views of the valley.

We want to thank Big-D for the invitation and for the opportunity to promote crane & construction safety.

Have you accepted the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge?

When the Utah Jazz Bear was challenged to the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge, he knew he had to go big. Mountain Crane was more than happy to help, offering the use of one of our cranes, lifting an entire dumpster filled with ice and water.

After completing his challenge, Bear nominated Karl Malone, Enes Kanter, Governor Herbert & Greg Ostertag. Check out <http://alsa.org/> for more information and to donate.
