NextEra Wind Farm

Mountain Crane recently completed a job outside Evanston, Wyoming at the NextEra Wind Farm with the company Olsen Beal replacing gearboxes on several wind turbines.

Mountain Crane utilized its Manitowoc 777 220 Ton Conventional Truck Crane with 178 feet of main boom as well as the “Flying Hawaiian” Grove GMK6300L Hydraulic All Terrain Crane. These cranes worked together to lift gearboxes that weigh up to 28,000 lbs. Although it doesn’t look very cold in these pictures, Evanston reached Arctic temperatures during this project. There were winds up to 50 mph and 4 foot snowdrifts that our crane operators, mechanics, and all those involved had to deal with as they were installing these gearboxes. Despite these conditions, the Mountain Crane team was able to complete the project without delay.

Mountain Crane always emphasizes our company’s internal motto to be “On Time, Prepared & Safety Compliant” and values when our employees meet and exceed these safety standards when faced with severe weather conditions.

Noelle Pikus-Pace

Mountain Crane Service has taken the awesome opportunity to sponsor an Olympic athlete who is currently en route to the Sochi 2014 Olympics which are just around the corner! Utah born Noelle Pikus-Pace is competing in the Women's Skeleton and embarking on her Olympic journey as she participates in several races across the globe.

The Mountain Crane team had the fun opportunity to watch Noelle compete in the World Cup that took place in Park City, UT at the beginning of December where Noelle broke the long-standing track record! Mountain Crane is excited to follow and cheer on Noelle as she competes and wishes her the best of luck in her Olympic endeavors. For frequent updates on Noelle, check out her blog: <http://www.noellepikuspace.com/>

Employee Spotlight

Tyler Poulsen has been a Project Manager for the last 6 months at Mountain Crane. Tyler was raised on a dairy farm and enjoys working with mechanical equipment so the crane world had always been intriguing to him. His favorite thing about Mountain Crane Service is the family atmosphere. He also likes how Mountain Crane has great plans for new, efficient ways to navigate through the crane/heavy haul industry.

Tyler is from Benson, Utah. He has been married to his wife, Heather, for 18 years and has two wonderful kids: Gavin (age 13) who loves playing hockey and Cassidey (age 11) who enjoys dancing with her studio. In his spare time Tyler enjoys all things outdoors, camping, rock crawlers, running, hiking, drag racing, and motorcycles. He also promises that hockey is the best sport hands down!

Mountain Crane Service provides a variety of services across the Intermountain West including plant shutdowns, steel, pre-cast panels, heating and cooling units, transformers, pools and hot tubs, demolition, windmills, and bridge girders, to name a few.

Heavy Haul service is also available.

Mountain Crane Service employees receive continual training through Operating Engineers Local 3 and have their CCO Certification.
